Years are the milestones that tell us the distance we have traveled. And while each passing year robs us of something, we can always recapture it in memory. Strange to say, even those things that are hard to endure and pleasant to remember.

Through the medium of our written chronicles we can turn back the pages of Time and review the events of yesteryear as they apply to our own lives - a lasting record of our activities, our experiences, and our viewpoints - a living memoir of things attempted and things done - a vivid story that is ever new and ever refreshing to us in hours of recollection.

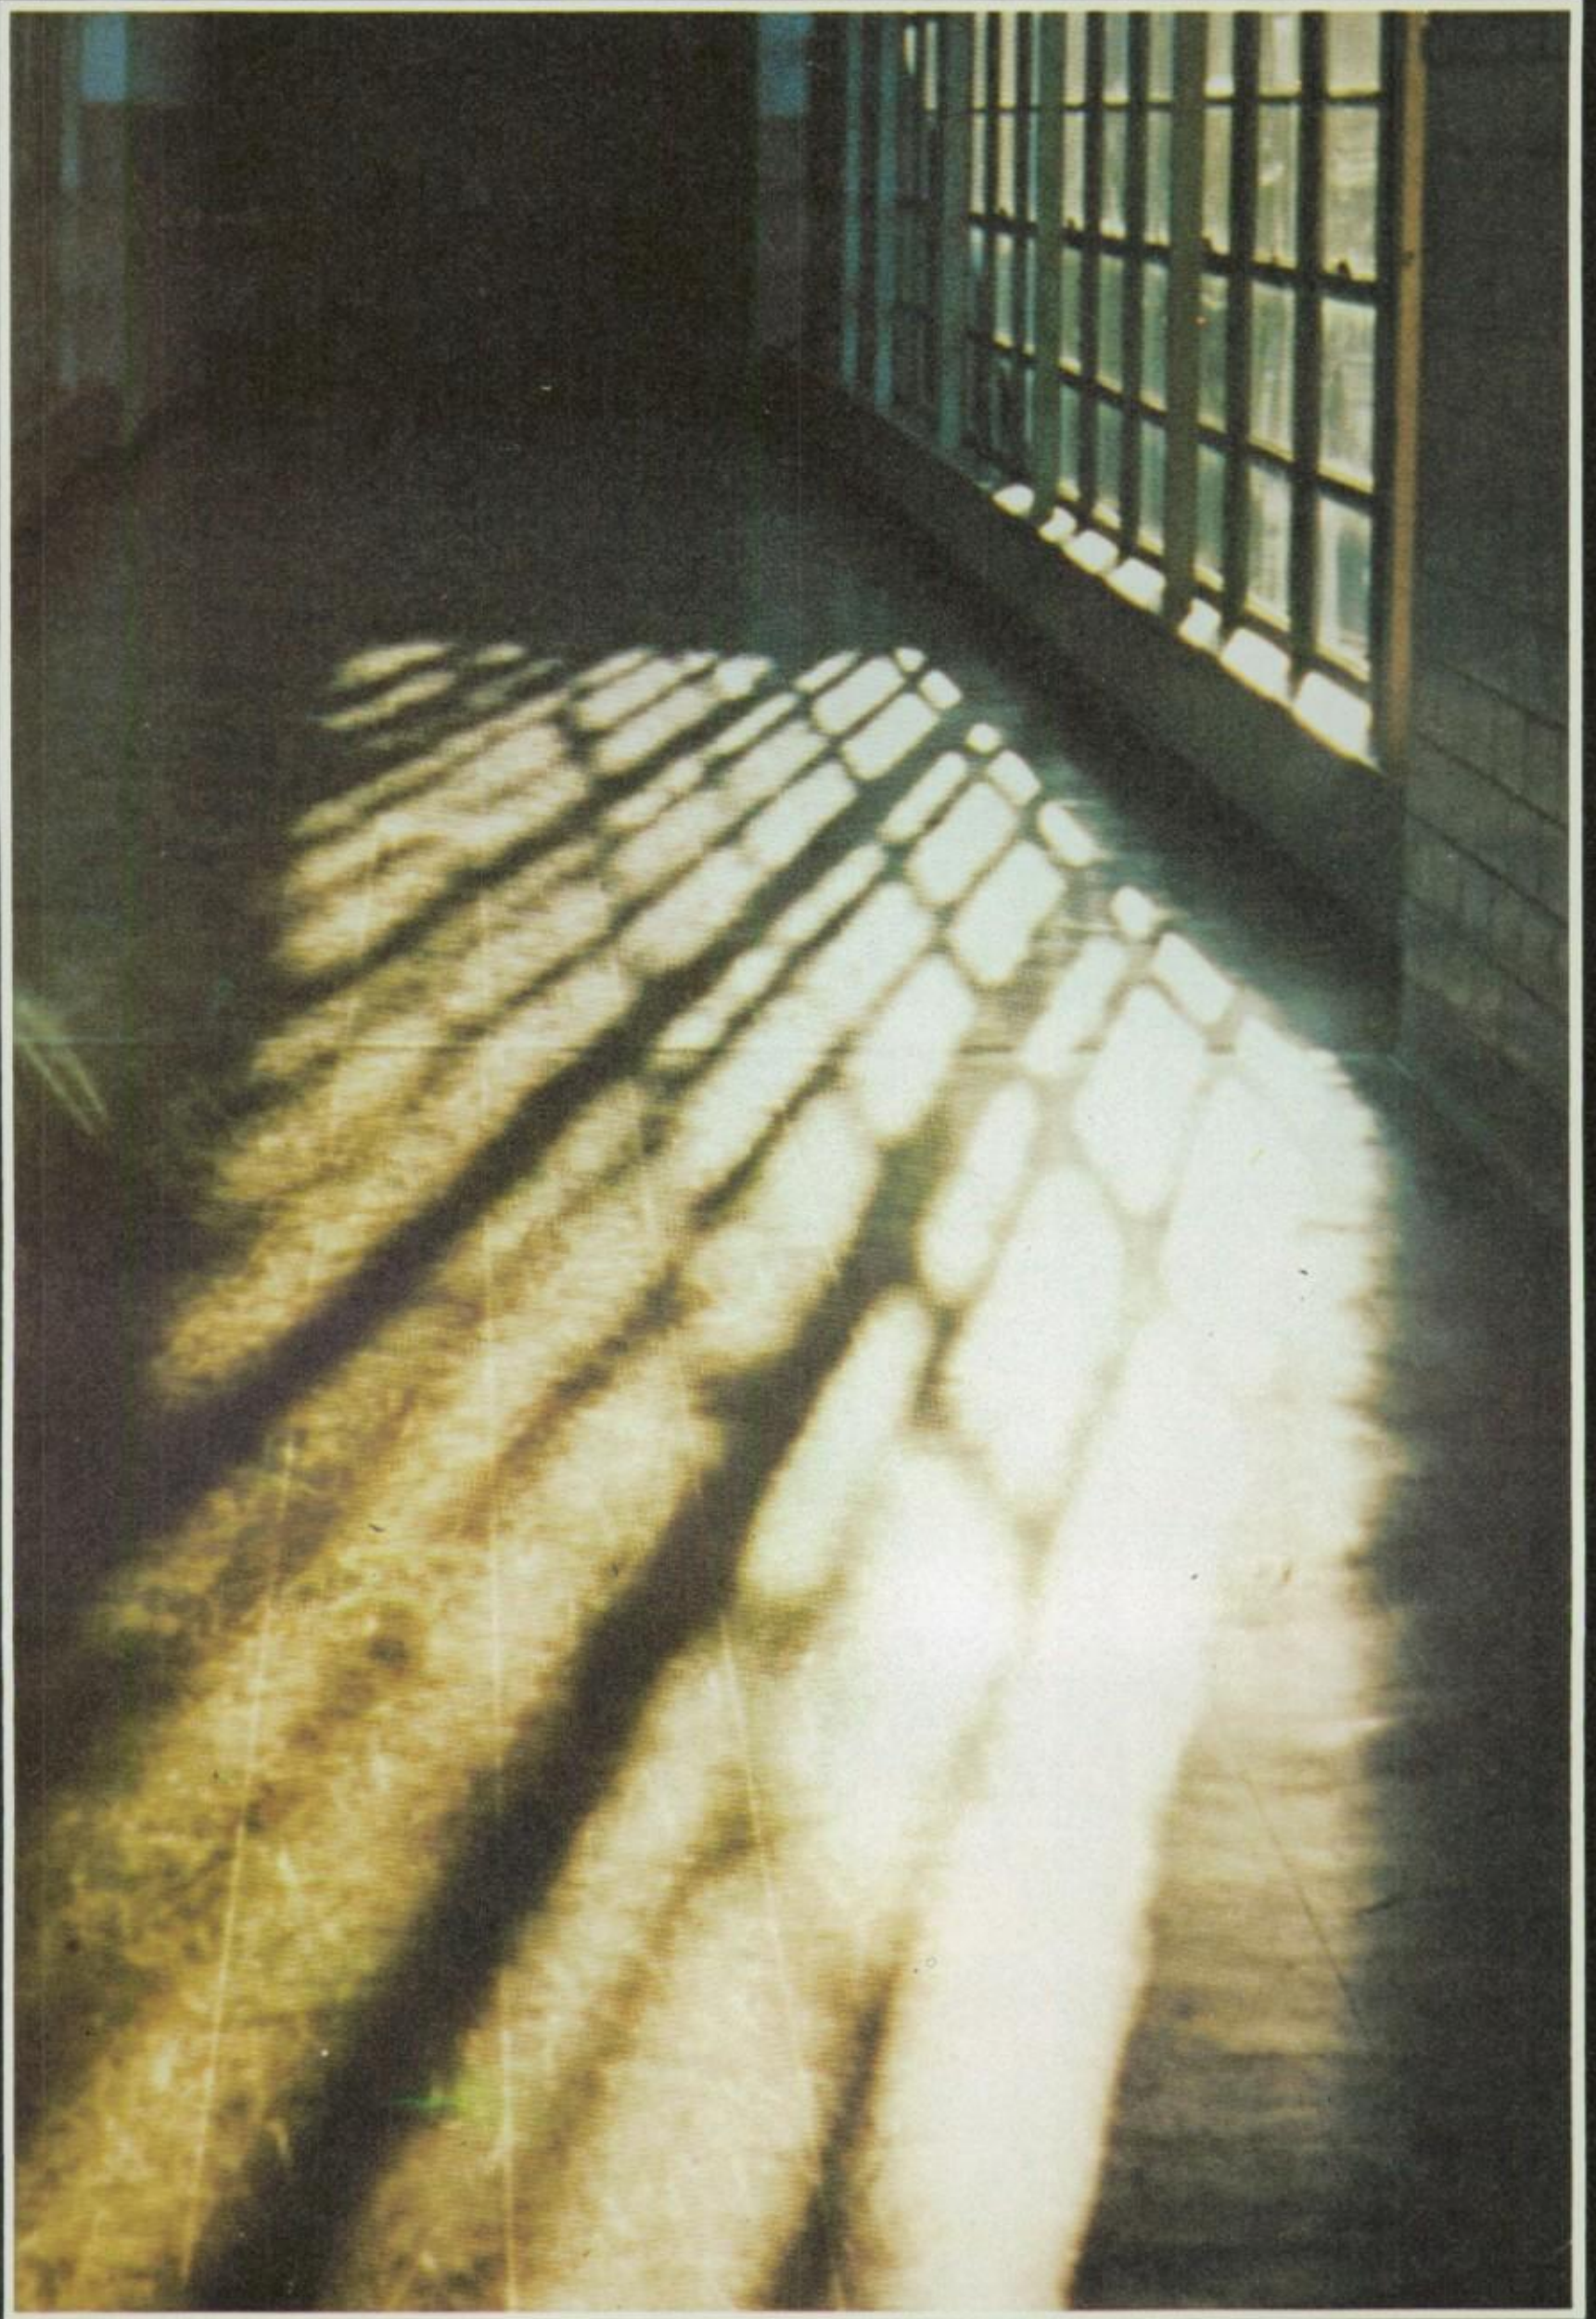

High school,
a time for companionship
...

. . . hard work and late nights created lasting friendships . . .

. . . youth
and vitality gave birth to laughter and growth . . .

. . . it was the fun
and our friends that helped to ease the pressures . . .

. . . so we will remember when we were together.

Assemblies, plays, and activities
add variety to student life.

Weeks of planning and preparation preceded Homecoming this year - along with a few problems concerning the float competition and the election of candidates. Nominees for senior candidate (upper right) Debbie June, Becky Moore, LeeAnn Gentry, Sandy Bouldin, and Peggy Bradley, wait with their football escorts for the announcement of the four candidates at the Oct. 4 Pep Assembly. First and second hours on the day of Homecoming were spent at the stadium practicing the halftime ceremony. Varsity cheerleaders, (lower left) rest and talk before marching to the football field for practice. Marc Ford (lower right), Senior Class President, pauses during rehearsal to give instructions to crown bearers Leona and Timmy Libeer. Pat Grogan (upper left), T-Club President, treats cheerleader Jane Potter to a chocolate pie following T-Club's victory over Pep Club in a yelling contest at the Homecoming Pep Assembly.

Students Celebrate Homecoming

Drill team members (upper left) line up for the parade to the Homecoming game. Impatiently awaiting halftime, J.V. and Sophomore Cheerleaders (center left) watch as the Bears stomp the Olathe Eagles (lower left). Scoring seven touchdowns, the Bears won easily with a final score of 46 to 20. In step with the theme "A Season of Memories," candidates rode in antique cars, borrowed from the "Rodtiques." Jean Grogan (upper right), arrives in a 1934 Ford Convertible. Homecoming Queen Brenda Cantwell's expressions vary from smiles to tears as she accepts congratulations after her crowning (lower right).

Pep Assemblies Spark Enthusiasm

Pep Assemblies are held to promote school spirit in the entire student body, especially before home games. The majority of students attend the assemblies, though many prefer to watch, rather than take part.

Past Recreated in “An Evening of Sousa”

On the evening of November 21, 1909, the Sousa Band, under the baton of Lieutenant Commander John Sousa, played to an audience of thousands at the old Convention Hall in Kansas City, Missouri.

Inspired by the preparations for the National Bicentennial, the Turner Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Charles Jenkins, recreated portions of the Sousa program as it was presented sixty-six years ago. Dr. Russell L. Wiley, retired Director of Bands at the University of Kansas and one of America's most respected music educators, appeared as guest conductor.

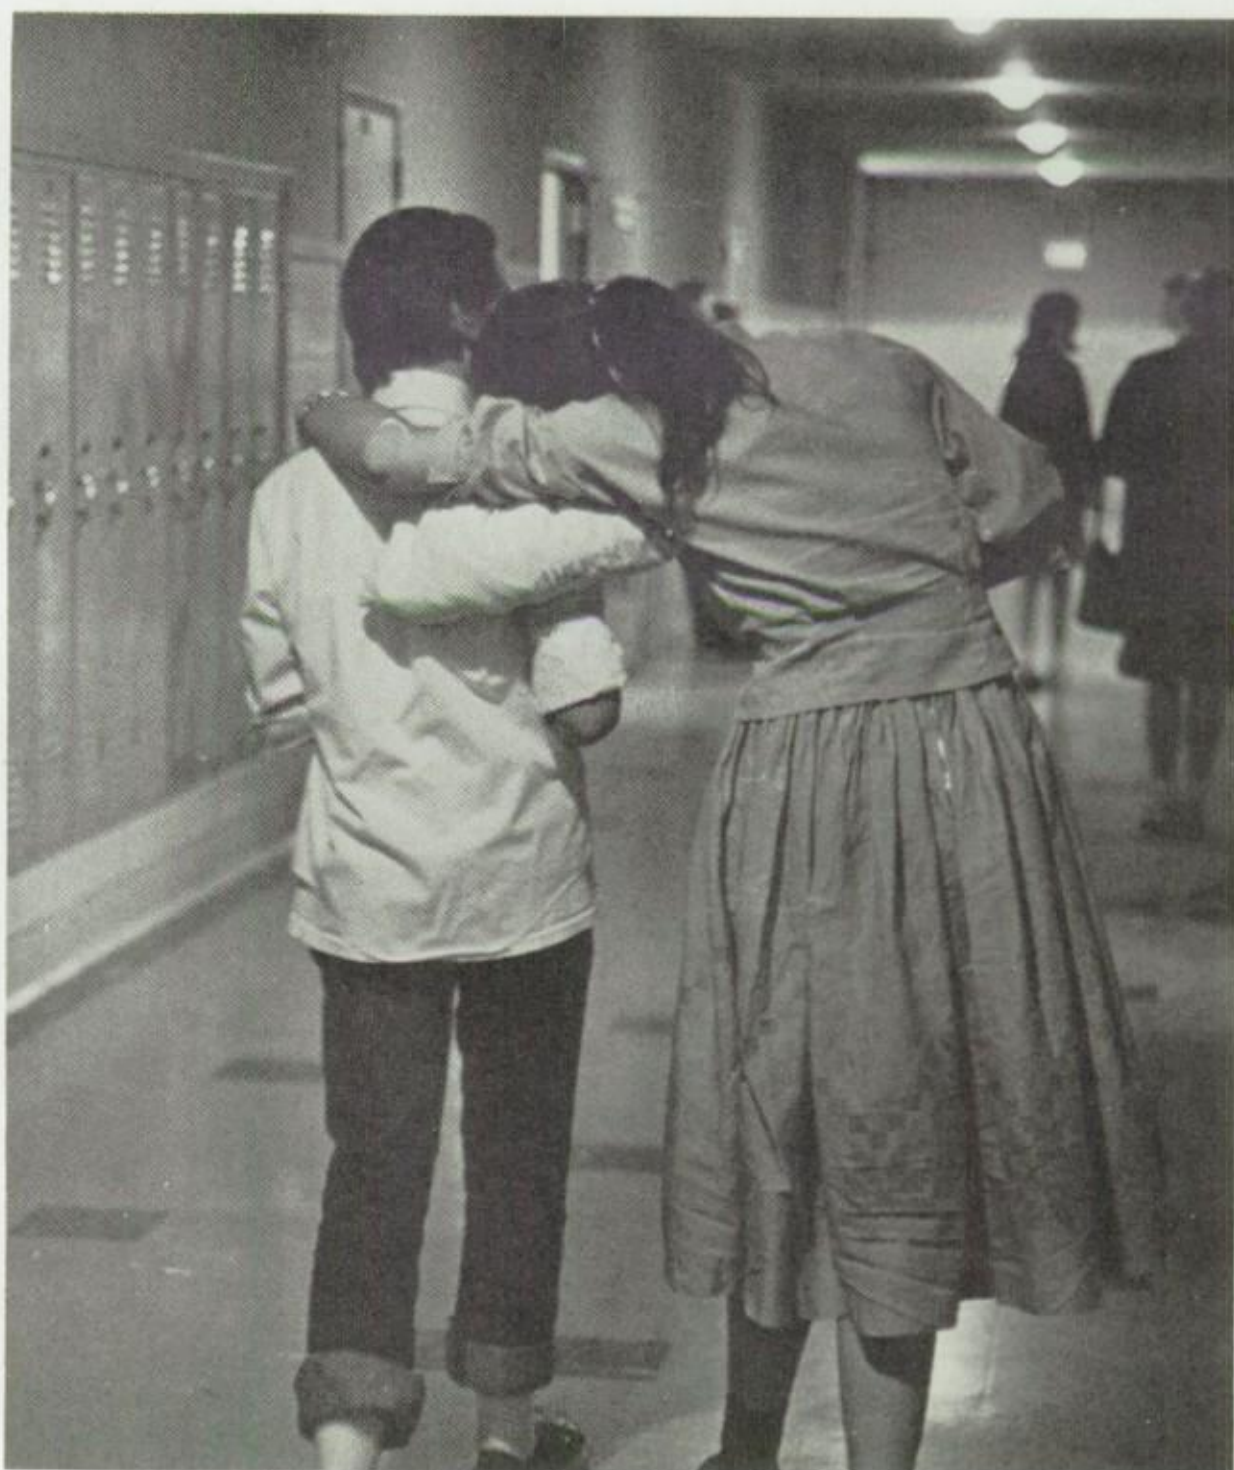

Spirit Week

Promotes Winter Sports

Student council capitalized on pre-holiday mood by sponsoring spirit week, the week before Winter break. Clubs such as TAA, Pep Club, TAOTA, Kayettes, T Club, Spanish Club, and CEC participated by serving brownies and milk to players before school and refreshments after practice. Athletes found sombreros on their lockers and received Christmas stockings.

Promoting Winter sports at Turner, individuals observed Dress-Up Day, Black and Gold Day, 50's Day, and Black and Gold Christmas Package Day, and Carter Day in honor of Mrs. Myrtle Carter, study hall teacher who left after Christmas to manage the Dari Queen.

Mrs. Carter also won the Spirit Teacher Award.

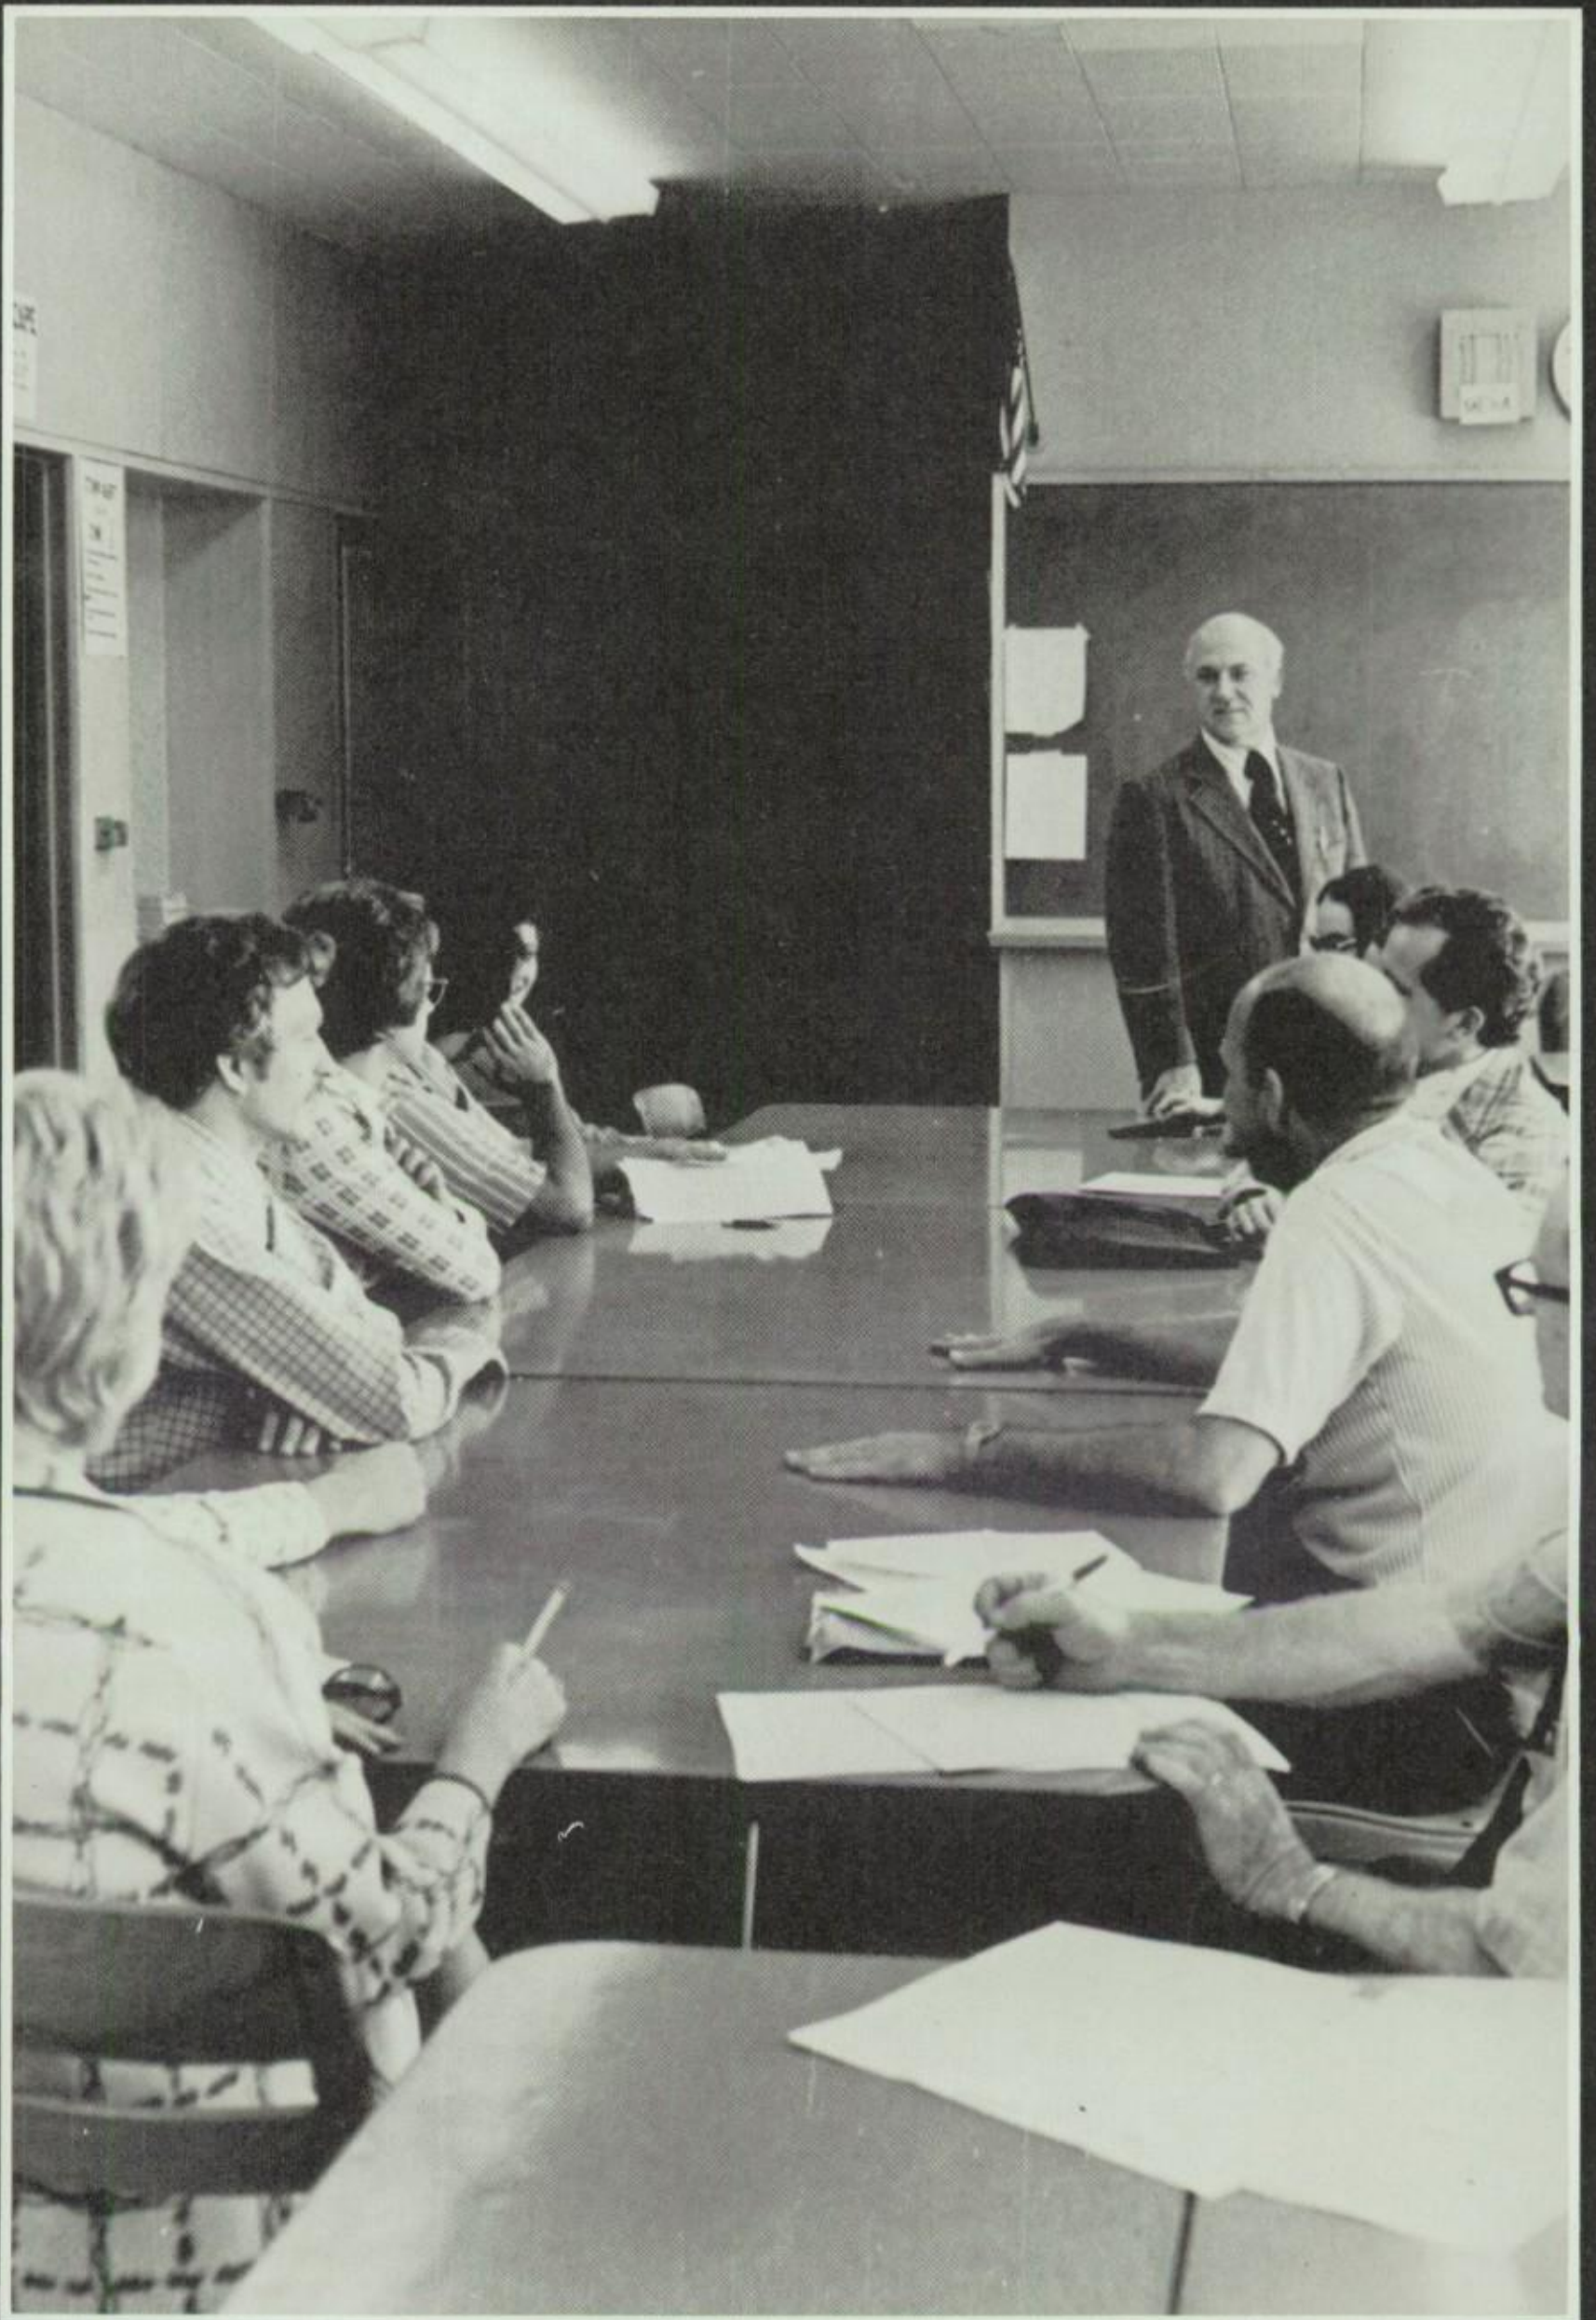

Turner Hosts Exchange Students

Five foreign exchange students attended Turner this year. Tereza Zelch, a senior from Brazil, was at Turner for the first semester. Patricia Mable Gutierrez, a senior, came from Argentina. Fatima Cunha, from Natal, Brazil, was an exchange student in Oregon, Ohio before coming to Kansas. Pedro Lobo from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil attended classes at Turner as a sophomore during the summer vacation of his home school. Preparations were made for the late January arrival of Axel Grael from Argentina.

Defense and Pride Mark Golden Bears

The Basketball Bears of 1974-75 continued Turner's tradition of a powerful, competitive team. The bears were led by only five returning Seniors: Wayne Peniston, Jim Beagle, John Washburn, Joel Johnson, and Robbie Albertson, along with the two outstanding juniors in the starting line up, Chris Swarts and Jim Rodden. Under their new coaching staff of head coach, Keith Lindsey, (left) and asst. coach, Dale Graham, (far left) the Golden Bears again proved to be tough contenders. Also playing Varsity this year were: Ray Preston, Joe Caldwell, Steve Wiseman, Bob Bowman, David Wood, Mitch Clem and John Hale.

Senior Lettermen Steer Team Through Season

Apprentice Cagers Prepare for Varsity

The Junior Varsity Basketball squad developed skills which will serve as a solid foundation for next year. By the end of the season it was very apparent that there would be a strong input for next year's Varsity team.

J.V. players were: Steve Wiseman, Mitchell Clem, Ray Preston, David Wood, Steve Davidson, Carl Fugate, Bob Bowman, Wade Fuller, John Hale, Ken Garrett, Larry Larimore, Joe Caldwell.

The sophomores, directed by coach Jim Dorsey, showed the results of disciplined team work. The games were exciting as the team never showed the signs of the resignation.

Volleyball Takes Third at Regionals

The Varsity and Junior Varsity volleyball teams worked hard at making the season a success. They finished with records of 2-4 and 2-5, respectively. Turner participated in Regionals and took 3rd place.

Playing Varsity were: Cathy Reardon, Mary Lohrey, Theta King, Chris Moore, Pam Erie, Crystal Jenkins, Debbie Fitch, Debbie Walker, Debbie Robinson.

Junior Varsity players were: Robin Wiseman, Jeanne Hite, Debbie Carter, Jerri Hickey, Terri Hunsucker, Cheryl Mann, Susan Finkemeier, Kathie Steiniger, Sandra Frost, Kim Bailey, Christi Steiniger, Lois McVeigh, and coaching the girls this year was Miss Cathy Webb.

Girl Golfers Bring Home Trophies

Girls athletics made one giant step forward with the formation of a girls golf team at Turner High School. In their first year of competition these eight girl athletes participated in the State tournament to bring home two trophies, one for team events and one for individual efforts. Mrs. Pat Heidler coached the team which consisted of Melinda Wilson, Janie Wilkins, Patsy Carter, Kim Harbour, Jacque Smith, Joanna Baker, Joy Emery, and Cindy Lukinac.

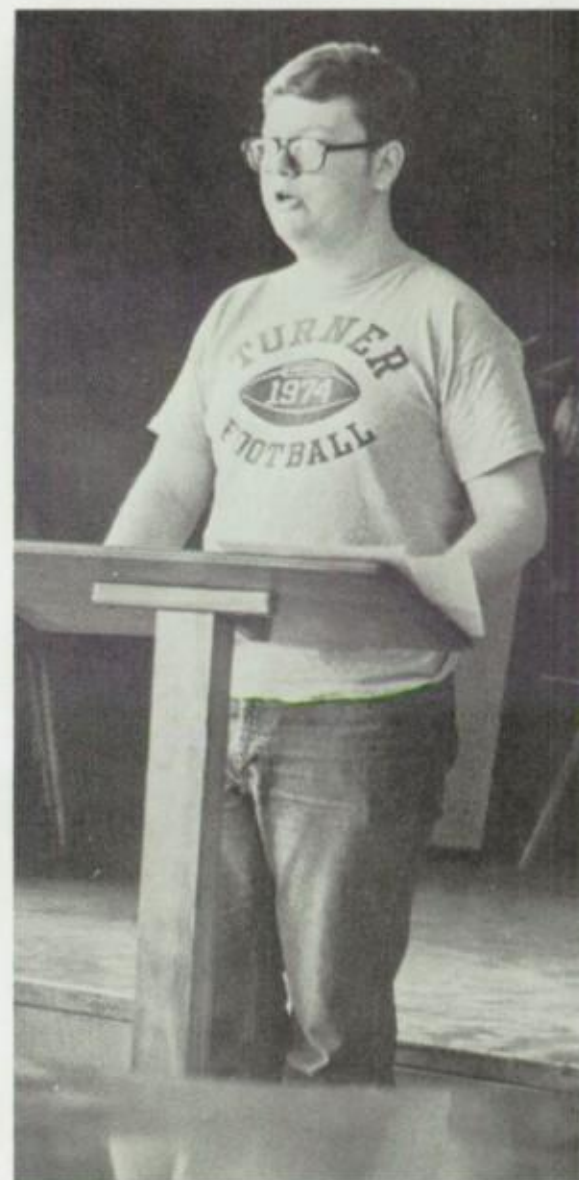

Interest Runs High With Bowlers

Interest and the competitive spirit ran high for the sixty girls who participated in intramural bowling. Tension mounted each Wednesday after noon at Tower Lanes as teams vied for individual trophies which were awarded in the Spring.

Novice Debaters Look Ahead

The debate class, made up entirely of novice debaters, is looking forward to next year with great anticipation. With the year's experience in debate and regional competition the returning debaters plan to attack next year's topic with enthusiasm.

"Resolve: The US should significantly change the method of selection of President and Vice President," is the national topic chosen by secondary teachers for 1974-75 school year. The topic for the following year is announced in March and materials are acquired through the summer for the new topic.

The debaters are: Michelle Thebo, Terry Edmonson, Scott Zielsdorf, Cindy Frogley, Karen Bryant, Becky Lanning, Sherri Eichelberger, Bryan Pierce, Ken Garrett, Sherri Collins, Patsy Leathers, Teresa Vanderwerf, Juanita Flaggard, and Becky Sawyers. Charlene Atkinson and Cindy Lukinac are experienced debaters who assisted in the regional.

Contenders Backed by School Spirit

Many students lend faithful support to the interscholastic competitors. Their tireless efforts in maintaining and accounting for equipment, keeping statistics and treating cuts and bruises make life much simpler for coaches and athletes.

Assisting in the football program are managers - Chris Wiss, Mike Berry, Scott Zielsdorf; trainers - Carl Fugate and Brad Hayes; statisticians are Sherry Eichelberger, Jean Grogan, Kim Harbour, Nancy Ross, Ann Vallis.

Brad Hayes, acted as trainer for the wrestling team.

Assisting with basketball were Steve Hyde, Varsity aide; and Kim Harbour, Pat Grogan and Jean Grogan as statisticians.

Cheerleader Enthusiasm Runs High

Energy and enthusiasm are important qualifications for cheerleaders. After being selected from tryouts by a panel of judges cheerleaders face many hours of practice before leading Pep Club and spectators in enthusiastic support of Turner's athletic endeavors. The three cheerleading squads participate in Pep Assemblies and show their colors, Black and Gold, of course, on game days.

The Varsity cheerleaders were: Jane Potter, head cheerleader, Lee Ann Gentry, Deby June, Pam Lemmon, Lisa Siler, Sicki Smith, Lori Helmick and Cindy Hildebran. Assisting them during the basketball season were the following yell leaders: Mike Hensley, Allen Knoll, Barry Lake, Don Matteson, Richard Null, Jim Lust, Jay Oliver and Jerry Sullivan.

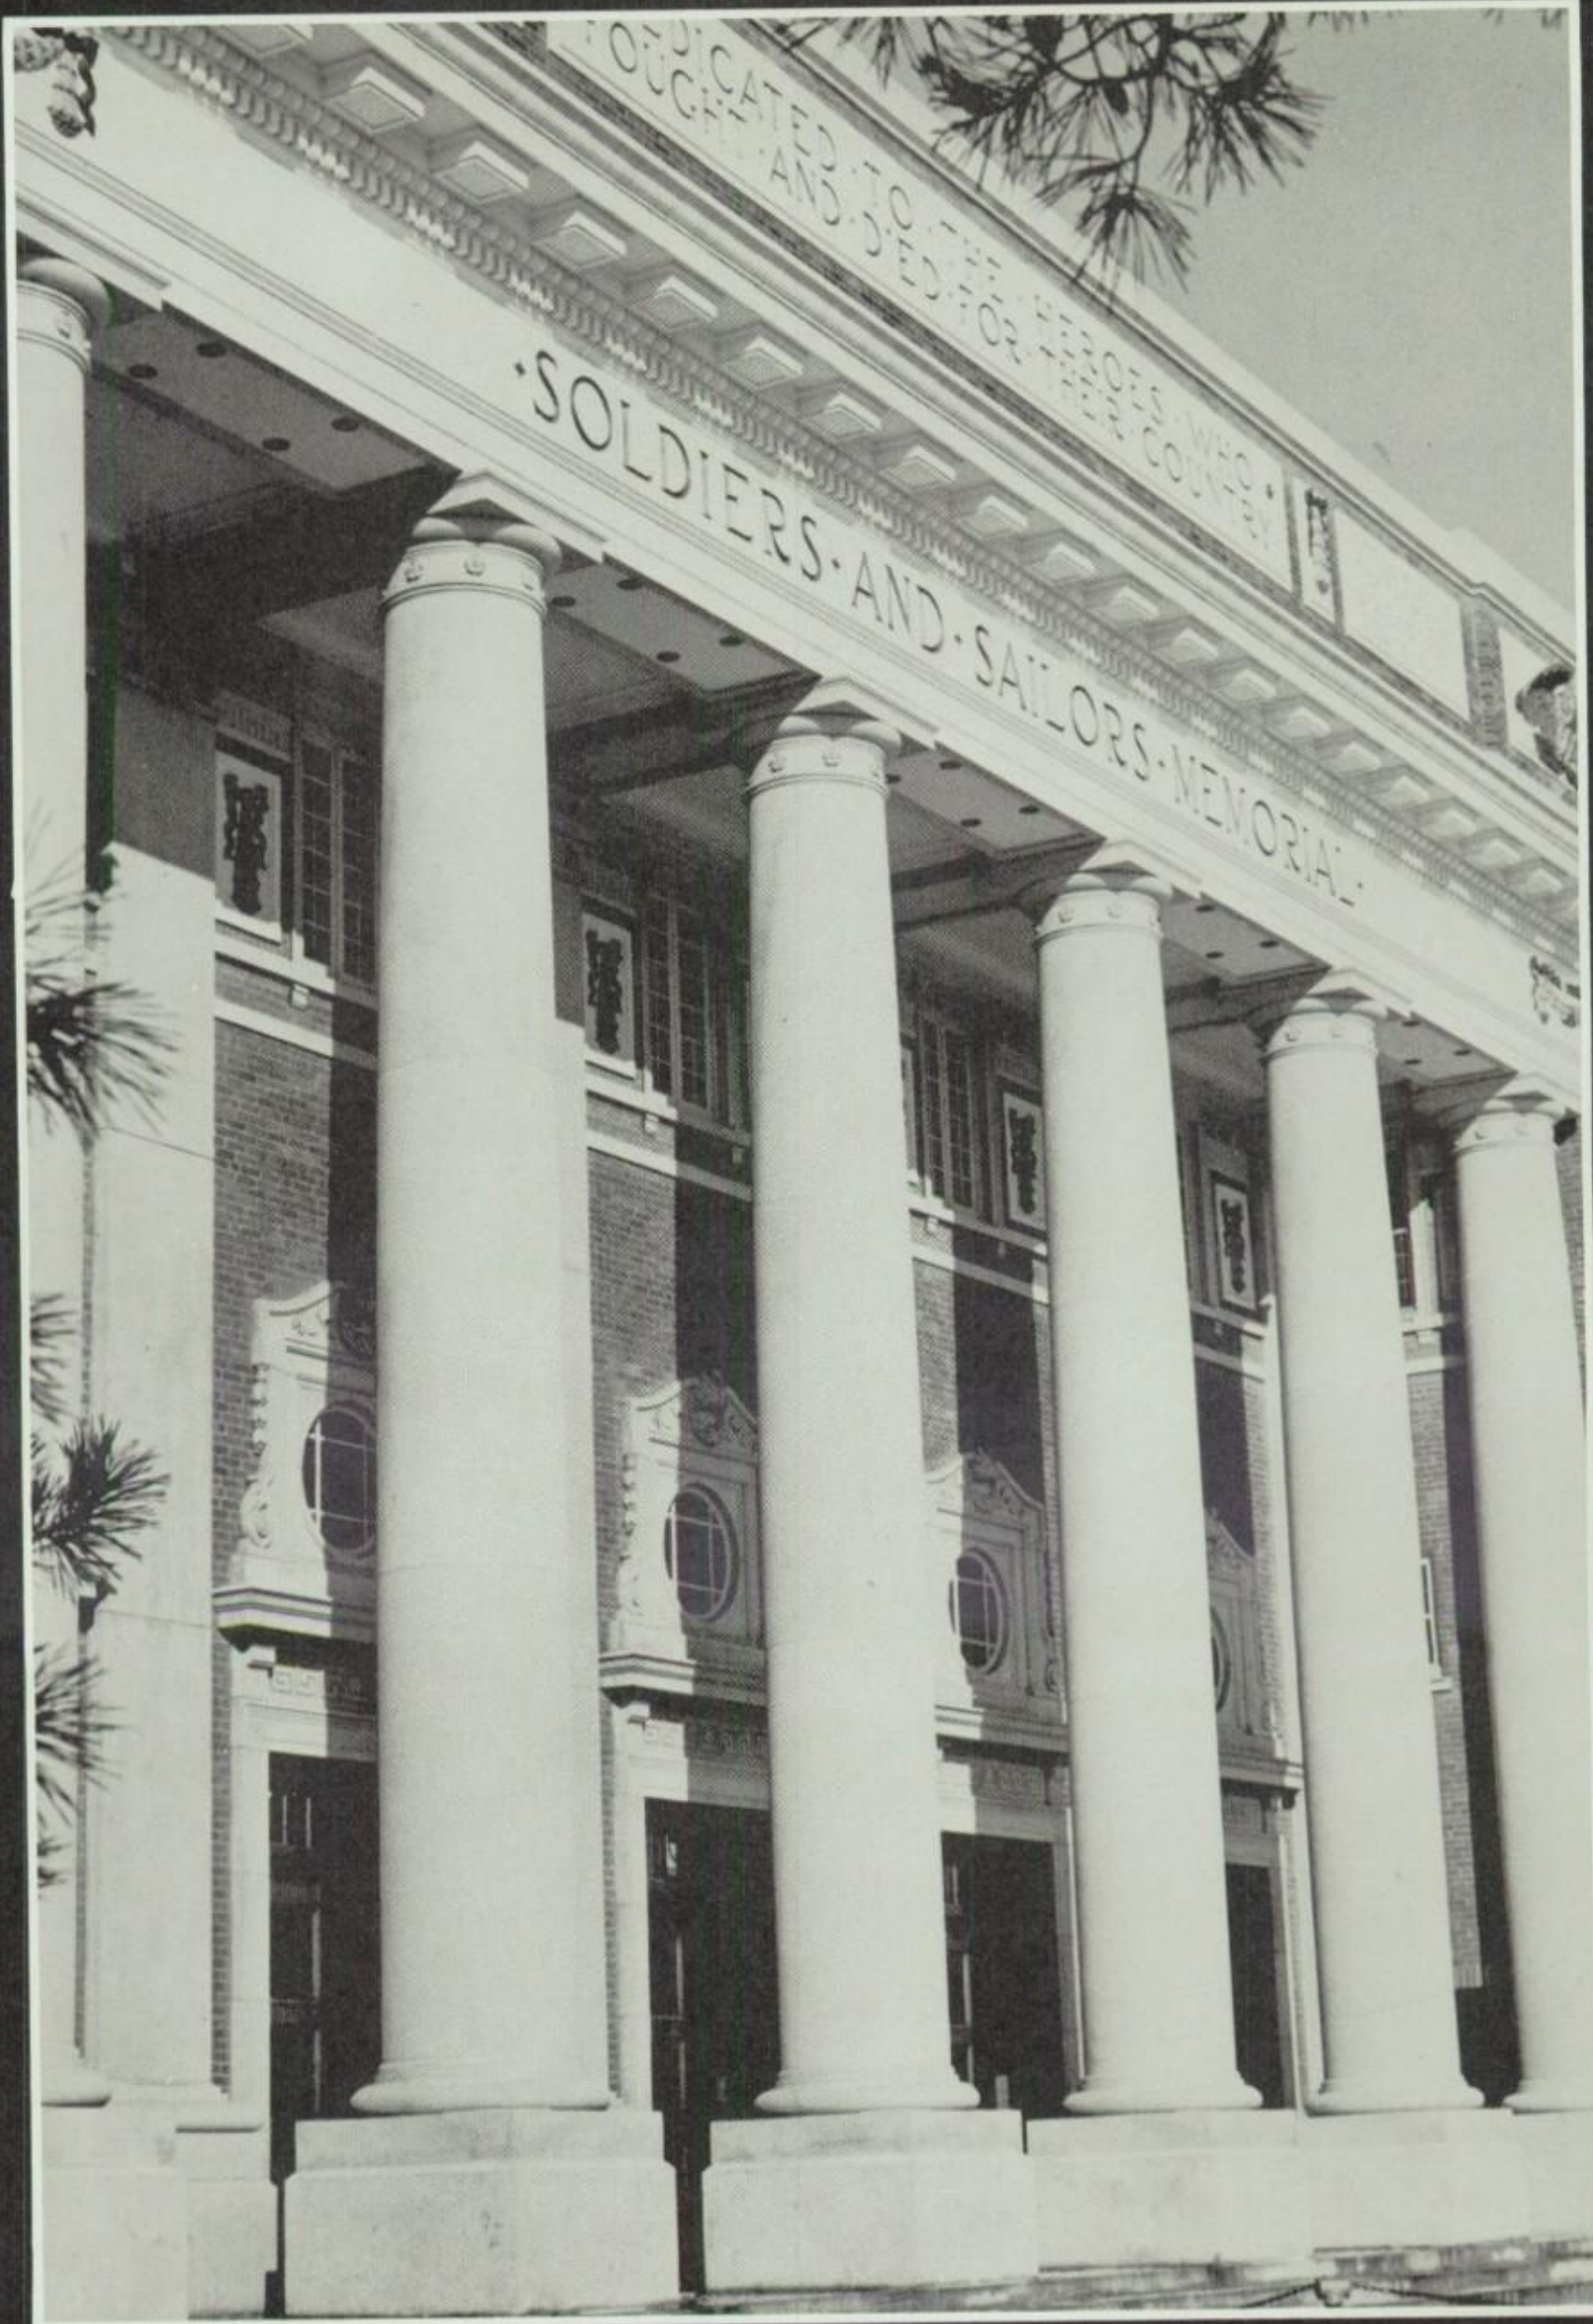

J.V. Cheerleaders Joined by Sophomores

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders were joined this year by a sophomore squad. Formerly, the J.V. cheerleaders attended sophomore sports events, in addition to attending all Varsity events. The addition of sophomore cheerleaders greatly reduced the J.V. squad's responsibilities, leaving them more free to concentrate on Junior Varsity sports. Cheering for J.V. this year were: Renee Bunce, head cheerleader; Cindy Libeer, Teri Mabe, Sheri Espy, Mendy Snow, Nancy Kennedy, and Debbie Hart.

Sophomore cheerleaders were Debbie Rich, head cheerleader; Terri Christopher, Rita Hale, Debbie Pretz, Shery Miller, Julie Smith, and Becky Wakefield.

Leaders Reflect on Final Year at Turner

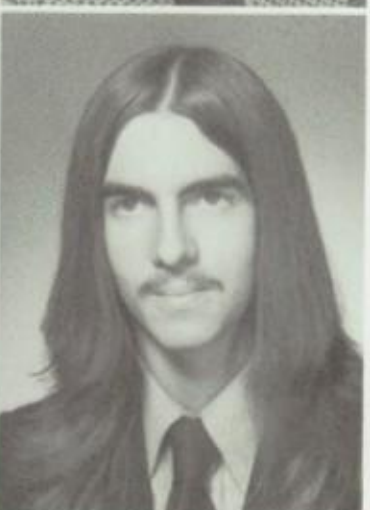

"When I think of this year's graduating class, the word "care" comes to me. The class of '75 saw something wrong, and they let people know it was wrong and they cared enough to change it," stated Marc Ford, senior class president. Brenda Cantwell, the class of '75's treasurer says, "A few people may not agree but I feel we had a pretty successful year. There were a few misunderstandings but we were able to work everything out." The senior class' secretary, Lee Ann Gentry, said, "I am proud to have been chosen as a leader of a class that is willing to change and break tradition. The class as a whole has been very open and willing to communicate with each other. I am happy to be a part of the graduating class of 1975." Vice president of the class, Bob Lovell, remarks, "I think the year went pretty smooth. I hope it went as well for everyone else as it did for me."

Gone are the days of my school years
And the precious moments of adolescence.
Friends whose voices I'll never hear again
Or faces that I'll never see again.
It's sad to think after this many years
My life will make a complete turnabout.
We'll all go into the world
Each of us a separate way,
And struggle for the things we want in life.

As I walk down the empty halls,
The tears roll freely from my eyes
While I remember so clearly
The time I've spent here - -
 the good; the bad.
I can hear the laughter of my friends
 that I love so much,
As they make their way through the crowded halls.
The banging of locker doors rings through my ears
And I see couples sitting in the windows;
I wonder what will become of them.

Now as I leave, I turn around for one last glimpse
The familiar hallways and my friends who fill them.
I will always have these memories
Which will someday be pleasant - now sad.
I turn now, and walk away from my youth
And begin the days of my adulthood.

Compliments From a Former
Turner Graduate

TURNERITE STAFF

The "'75" Turnerite Staff would like to express their appreciation to:
Lee Ann Janus for her design of the front cover.
Crystal Jenkins for assisting in photography.

It seems to me a crime that we should age,
These fragile times should never slip us by.
A time we never can or shall erase,
As friends together watch their childhood fly.

Makin' friends for the world to see,
Let the people know, you got what you need.
With a friend at hand you will see the light,
If your friends are there, then everything's alright.

Dear Mr. Fugate,

Of all the people, I've met during my 3 years at Turner I feel like you have been one of the greatest inspirations and blessings. I'm going to miss having you for teacher. Not only as a teacher, but also as a wonderful Christian friend. Just to know someone like is around ^{like you} builds my faith up. I really have enjoyed talking with you about our Lord Jesus. Praise God, we will spend eternity together! I'll drop in and let you know what's happening at ORU. God bless you infinitely (sp) - I know he does.

Love,
Michele

Mr. Fugate,

I've really enjoyed being one of your students. You've taught me a lot even though it may not show on the surface. Someday I hope to be a Biology teacher and I only hope I can be as good as you. I sure hope that Hiroshio, Clarence, Gabe, Baxter + Huey have good homes. Take Care + may be I will be at Turner once again. May God Bless

Love Always,

'50s Brought to Life by Dramatic Arts

The Musical for 1975, BYE BYE BIRDIE, directed by Mrs. Mary Hansen and Mr. Paul Klassen, was presented on April 18 and 19 with the assistance of the student director, Janie Wilkins and stage manager, Dorene Landis.

BYE BYE BIRDIE is a musical comedy about a '50's rock singer Conrad Birdie, (Mike Hensley) who is going into the Army. His manager, Albert Peterson (Mike Muniz) and his secretary (Charlene Atkinson) make a big production out of his giving a girl, Kim Macafee (Kristy Allen) one last kiss on the Ed Sullivan Show, but her boyfriend, Hugo Peabody, (Tony Middleton), has other ideas. The plot is complicated by Peterson's mother (Pam Yeary). The cast included 80 students.
